Drysdale is Aaron's Favorite Victim

Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers has given up 17 home runs to Hank Aaron, more than any other NL pitcher, present or past. The first Aaron homer off Drysdale was June 29, 1958, a grand slam, and the most recent Sept. 3, 1967.

Larry Jackson of Montreal, with 10, is second among active pitchers in Aaron gopher balls, followed by Don Cardwell of New York, nine; Ron Kline of Pittsburgh and Mike McCormick of San Francisco, eight apiece, and Sammy Ellis, since moved to the American League, with seven.

Among retired NL pitchers, leaders in home runs allowed Aaron were Bob Friend, 12; Roger Craig, 10; Robin Roberts and Vernon Law, 9; Johnny Antonelli, Harvey Haddix and Jay Hook, 8; and Johnny Podres, Curt Simmons, Sandy Koufax and Bob Buhl, 7.

Aaron has hit 510 home runs against 194 different pitchers, 139 of them right handers and 55 of them lefthanders.

Established the following Major League record:

—Oldest Player, Game—59 years, 2 months, 18 days, Sept. 25, 1965, night game; pitched first three innings against Boston, allowed no runs.

Out of Organized Baseball until July 7, 1948, when Cleveland Indians' owner Bill Veeck purchased his contract from Kansas City Monarchs. Pitched before 78,382 Aug. 20, 1948 at Cleveland, largest crowd in history for night game. Pitched two-thirds of inning in World Series against Boston Braves. Signed by Kansas City Athletics, Sept. 10, 1965; released Oct. 15. Signed by Atlanta Braves Aug. 11, 1968; unconditionally released Sept. 30 for purposes of signing him as a coach for 1969 season. Following data on Paige's pitching career outside of Organized Ball is from his autobiography, Maybe I'll Pitch Forever (Doubleday, 1962). His first professional club was Chattanooga Black Lookouts, 1926. Pitched 'year-round' 1929-58, including 2500 games, "more than 100 no-hitters." He was first Negro pitcher in American League, first Negro pitcher in World Series. He needed 158 days to qualify for minimum five-year pension when signed by Atlanta. Necessary 158-day period will expire Aug. 1, 1969. His 'Rules for Staying Young': "1. Avoid fried meats which anger up the blood; 2. If your stomach disputes you, lie down and pacify it with cool thoughts; 3. Keep the juices flowing by jangling around gently as you move; 4. Go very light on the vices, such as carrying on in society—the social ramble ain't restful; 5. Avoid running at all times; 6. And don't look back. Something might be gaining on you." He portrayed cavalry sergeant in movie, "The Wonderful Country" in 1958 with Robert Mitchum and Julie London, filmed in Durango, Mexico.

ATLANTA STADIUM

521 Capitol Avenue SW, Atlanta, Ga. 30312

Seating capacity, Baseball—51,383; Football, 58,850.

Playing field distances—Left and right field fences, 330 feet; center field fence, 400. Outfield fence, six feet high; wall, 22 feet high.

Atlanta Stadium is located one mile south of midtown Atlanta at the juncture of Interstate highways 20, 75 and 85. It was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Ground was broken Apr. 15, 1964 and the first game was played Apr. 9, 1965—the Milwaukee Braves defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game three days before opening the 1965 season at Cincinnati. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. Architects were two Atlanta firms, Heery & Heery, and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild & Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Co. of Charlotte, N. C. and Atlanta.

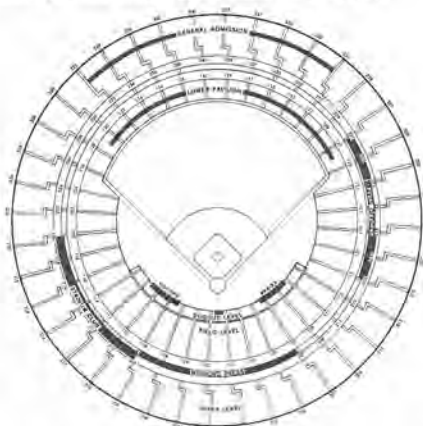

City of Atlanta-Fulton Co. Recreation Authority

The Authority maintains and operates Atlanta Stadium. Members serve four-year terms. Six are appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the Board of Aldermen. Three are appointed by the county commissioners. The Authority meets on the third Thursday in November each year, with other meetings on call.

Two Homers in Club Level

It's a long way from home plate to the Club Level at Atlanta Stadium, but two National League batters have reached it with home runs in the Braves three seasons in Atlanta.

Joe Torre of the Braves achieved the feat with a drive to left June 20, 1966 against Philadelphia pitcher Chris Short. Jimmy Wynn of Houston topped that with a blast down the left field line Sept. 7, 1968 that hit the upper facade of the Club Level, missing by inches passing into the Upper Level. Phil Niekro was the Atlanta pitcher.

ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Top home attendance marks for Braves in Boston (Braves Field—41,000), Milwaukee (Milwaukee County Stadium—43,827), and Atlanta (Atlanta Stadium—51,383).

The Incomparable Spahn

Who was the greatest pitcher of all time? Braves fans can make a case for Warren Spahn. He led the league in complete games nine times and in victories eight times, won 20 games 13 times, and had 100 or more strikeouts for 17 straight years, all big league records. Spahn won 363 games (356 for the Braves), an all-time high for left-handers.

Night of Triumph and Tragedy

Jim Britton pitched the Richmond Braves to the International League pennant of 1967, 2-0 over Rochester Sept. 5 at Rochester. Jim's father, 60-year-old Russell Britton of N. Tonawanda, N. Y., one of 11,459 fans at the game, watched Jim pitch a one-hitter, then died of a heart attack in the eighth inning. Manager Luman Harris removed Britton from the game and informed him of his father's death.

Twenty-one Were Original Signees

Twenty-one of the 38 players on the Atlanta winter roster were originally signed by the Braves. The first to be signed was Hank Aaron, 17 years ago back on June 14, 1952, and the most recent was Rick Kester, Aug. 28, 1967.

Ten current Braves came by trade. They are Felipe Alou, Ken Aspromonte, Clete Boyer, Sonny Jackson, Pat Jarvis, Bob Johnson, Ken Johnson, Milt Pappas, Claude Raymond and Bob Tillman. Raymond was an original Braves signee, too, but has also pitched for the White Sox and Houston since.

Jim Britton, Darrell Evans, Felix Millan, Don Spain and Ron Tompkins came to the Braves via the professional draft. Tito Francona was an outright purchase, and Gil Garrido an outright purchase at the minor league level.

Saves Are Official Statistics

Pitching saves will be listed in box scores and official statistics for the first time in 1969.

Only one save can be awarded in any game, but the provisions for earning that save have been liberalized. The rule states:

"Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters the game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, provided he is not credited with the victory."

Furthermore, "a relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinch-hitter or runner.

"When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective."
